

Payment methods on simplesurance.co.uk

State: October 2022

You will come across two payment methods that we offer during the ordering process and you can choose your preferred method yourself. You can make transactions on simplesurance.co.uk via credit card (VISA and MasterCard) or PayPal. You can find the individual methods of payment explained below. Please note that only one promotional code or discount can be redeemed per order. Discounts expire in case the order is cancelled. Special promotional offers and customer discounts are only valid until revoked, temporary discount offers are also subject to the respective terms of use.

Credit card

You can use your credit card on simplesurance.co.uk without hesitation. We accept VISA and MasterCard. Once you have finished the order and payment process, your credit card will be charged. You will receive your contract documentation immediately after the payment process is completed. In case of exercising your right of withdrawal, we will refund you the amount paid.

Your credit card details are entered on the pages of our payment service provider "Stripe" and will be processed with secure encryption. We never save your credit card details on the pages of simplesurance.co.uk. You can find more information about your privacy in our Privacy policy.

PayPal

Using the payment method PayPal enables you to pay quickly and securely with no need to enter your bank account details on simplesurance.co.uk. You will receive your contract documentation immediately after the PayPal payment process is completed. Right after the order is placed, your PayPal account will be charged. In case of exercising your right of withdrawal, we will refund you the amount paid.
